Kaga City is a renowned hot spring town in Ishikawa Prefecture and is only 18 minutes away from Kanazawa by Shinkansen. Surrounded by the sea and mountains, the city offers a variety of fun activities, making it the perfect stop to relax and soak in a hot spring before heading to Osaka or Kyoto. Why not hop on the Shinkansen and discover what Kaga has to offer?

Kayaking and SUP

A Water Sports on the Lake Family-friendly and beginner-friendly—enjoy fun and relaxing kayaking and SUP on Lake Shibayama.

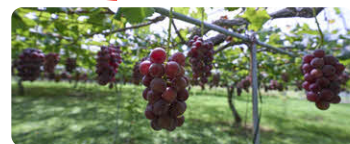

Located in Katayamazuru Onsen, one of the city's three hot spring districts, Lake Shibayama offers an impressive view of the Hakusan mountain range and is the perfect spot for water sports, which can be enjoyed by adults as well as children aged 5 and older. An experienced instructor will guide you through everything, from warming up to floating on the water. Don't forget to indulge in delicious drinks and cakes at Shibayama Slow Café afterwards.

April 12 (Sat) - April 13 (Sun)

① Sakura Matsuri Festival [Daishoji]

Kaga Shinmei-gu Shrine, also called the Yamashita Shrine, is known locally for hosting the Sakura Matsuri Festival every April. This festival features portable "mikoshi" shrines and "shishimai" lion dances that parade down the streets.

June 4 (Wed) - June 5 (Thu)

② Shobu-yu Matsuri Festival [Yamanaka/Yamashiro/Katayamazu]

On June 4, iris leaves (shobu) are thrown into the town's hot springs as a prayer for good health. The highlight of the festival is the impressive night parade, where portable shrines are loaded with straw bags containing iris leaves.

August 2 (Sat) - August 3 (Sun)

③ Yamashiro Daidengaku Festival [Yamashiro]

Dengaku is a traditional ritual music and dance performance originating 800-1200 years ago. The festival features local performers and famous actors, along with mystical flute music, bonfires, and lively dancing.

Last weekend of August

④ Guzu-yaki Matsuri Festival [Iburihashi]

This dynamic festival, marking the end of summer, is largely associated with a giant papier-mâché sculpture of a "guzu" fish. Originating around 200 years ago, people carry the "guzu" through the streets before burning it at Furihashi Shrine.

Sept 13 (Sat) - Sept 14 (Sun)

⑤ Juman-goku Matsuri Festival [Daishoji]

This large annual festival celebrates the rich culture that has developed in Kaga City. Locals dressed in kimonos perform a folk dance in circles while a portable "mikoshi" shrine adorned with lanterns parades through the town, accompanied by music.

At the end of September

⑥ Koi-Koi Matsuri Festival [Yamanaka]

Held each September, the Koi-Koi Matsuri is Yamanaka Onsen's largest festival. It marks the beginning of autumn and attracts visitors for two days of excitement. The parade featuring a large "shishimai" lion is not to be missed.

Stretching from the Sea of Japan's curving coastline up into rugged, mountainous terrain, impossibly picturesque Kaga City enjoys the best of all worlds. Flourishes of the area's rich historical, cultural and artistic heritage are everywhere to be seen. From relaxing hot springs and magnificent vistas, to natural wonders and the freshest seafood around, Kaga offers it all.
